

W. MOSES & SONS

F Street, Corner Eleventh. Storage Warehouse, 231 near M.

$30,000 worth of choicest OCEANIC HATS are here on consignment for sale at prices lower than are ever likely to be quoted again. The sale began last Monday, and will end October 25.

—We've been patiently waiting for another shipment of the $16 CORNER CHINA CLOSETS—and now they've come. But from the way the first lot went they won't be here long—especially since the price is only $10.65.

They're made of quartered oak, highly polished. It's a large play door 2 ft. 6 in. wide, 5 ft. 8 in. high. Finely carved, 4 adjustable shelves with grooves for plates and books for cups. Admirably constructed.

"I want to be the jeweler who comes into your mind first."

The newest and most seasonable goods are now here.

C. H. DAVISON, Jeweler, 1105 F St. N. W.

Cool Nights

Are delightful if one is well protected with suitable clothing. When you are buying Suits or Underclothing do not forget that we are as low, if not a little lower, than any one else.

GARNER & CO., OUTFITTERS, N. E. Cor. 7th and H Sts. N. W.

Established July, 1874. The Little Worries of life are often harder to bear than a great calamity. Broken buttons, holes and frayed edges on your collars and cuffs are not the least of life's worries. Have you heard of our autosew button?

Tolman Steam Laundry, 6th and C Sts. N. W.

Electricity is not only a better light than gas, but it is a safer, better and more reliable power than steam. There are dozens of printing houses and manufacturing concerns in town who use electric power.

When the "line" is really "phone" and we'll turn on the current. United States Electric Lighting Co., 217 14th St. N. W. Phone 77.

Getting the Stage Ready. After the performance at the Academy of Music to-morrow night the stage will be turned over to a score of theatrical mechanics, employed in getting everything in readiness for the big show, "On the Mississippi," which opens Monday night for one week's engagement. The advance sale of seats opened yesterday and will continue to-day and to-morrow. Everything points to a triumphant return of this immense production, presenting new and startling features, a strong cast and a host of comic darkies.

Gave a Church Lichen. The ladies of the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church gave a luncheon yesterday at Willard Hall, and entertained a large number of friends. A dainty menu was served from 12 to 2 p. m., and the proceeds will be added to the church building fund.

$3 is the price of the best Ladies' lace or button shoe on the market—a fashionable shoe, a well-made shoe, an ideal shoe. Havenner & Davis (Inc.), 928 F Street N. W.

DEFENSE OF MEDIUMS

They Are Subject to Prosecution in Some States.

MONEY LIBERALLY GIVEN

Convention of National Spiritualist Association Adjourns After Adopting New Articles of the Constitution. Election of Officers. Disposed of Various Tests and Improvisations.

The third annual convention of the National Spiritualist Association, which has been in session since Tuesday at Masonic Temple, having finished its work, adjourned last evening. The session, on the whole, was most harmonious, and the business transacted of the greatest importance to the friends of Spiritualism.

The morning session was occupied chiefly with the consideration of amendments to the constitution. The most important change was in reference to the object and scope of the N. S. A., and after a brief contest the following was adopted as Article II of the constitution:

"The objects of said association shall be the organization of the various spiritualist societies of the United States into one general association for the purpose of mutual aid and co-operation in benevolent, charitable, educational, literary, musical, scientific, religious and missionary purposes, and enterprises germane to the phenomena, science, philosophy, and religion of spiritualism."

PER CAPITA TAX. The fight over the twenty-five cents per capita tax for the support of the national association was finally settled by the adoption of the following: "By collecting five dollars for each charter issued to each association of lay members, and twenty-five cents per capita, as annual dues from the same."

"By collecting $10 for each charter issued to associations composed of delegates (not subscribers) and twenty-five cents per delegate as annual dues from the same; by collections to be taken by each chartered society on the 31st of March, or on its regular meeting nearest to said date in each year, and to receive donations, contributions and bequests."

The convention then began the consideration of its by-laws. No important changes were made, as only correction of verbiage and the finishing up of incomplete rules and regulations.

The resolution to pay the actual expenses of delegates in going and returning from conventions was adopted by an overwhelming vote.

At the afternoon session the special committee appointed to investigate the matter of the persecution and prosecution of mediums in several States, recommended that the board of trustees take some steps to prepare for the defense and protection of mediums. This suggestion was voted upon at once and unanimously adopted. In a very short while nearly $3,400 was subscribed, a great part being in cash.

OFFICERS ELECTED. Mr. Frank Walker, on the part of the committee on nominations, reports the following:

President, H. D. Barrett, Lily Dale, N. Y.; Vice President, Mrs. C. Y. Richmond, Chicago, Ill.; Honorary Vice President, Mrs. M. E. Caldwell, Pennsylvania; Secretary, Francis B. Woodbury, Washington, D. C.; Treasurer, Theodore J. Mayer, Washington, D. C.; Trustees, Hon. Milan C. Egan, Washington, D. C.; E. B. Hill, Philadelphia, Pa.; Hon. Luther V. Mead, Grand Rapids, Mich.; George B. Fuller, Massachusetts; A. L. Pettigall, Ohio.

The report was accepted as read, and on motion the nominees were elected as a whole by a rising vote.

The address of the N. S. A. becoming a member of the American Congress of Liberal Religious Societies was left to the discretion of the board of trustees.

In the evening the attendance was larger than at any time during the convention. The session was opened with music by Miss Julian, of Pennsylvania, and this was followed by an address on "Medium Spiritualism" by Mr. George R. Bacon, of this city, who quoted from many prominent writers both in this country and Europe in support of Spiritualism.

Excellent music was rendered by the Langley quartet, Mr. Mullen and Mrs. Fensters.

The delegates to the convention will visit Mr. Vernon to-day in a body.

Miss Rehan as Rosalind. A crowded house witnessed the performance of "As You Like It" last evening, at the Lafayette Square Opera House. Miss Rehan was, of course, the Rosalind, and gave a charming impersonation of that beautiful character. Mr. George Clark's work, as the melancholy Jacques, was better than that in his Malvolio of the preceding night. To-night the play will be, "Midsummer Night's Dream."

Fell from a Street Car. Frank Morse, seventeen years of age, living at No. 911 Thirtieth street northwest, fell from a street car last evening, spraining his wrist. He received treatment at the Emergency Hospital.

An Eleven-Year-Old Thief. John Jackson, eleven years of age, colored, has persisted in stealing flowers from the front yard of George W. Taylor. Yesterday he was caught in the act by Detective Barnes and locked up in No. 2 station.

Suspected of Housebreaking. William Simms was arrested last night for Detective Henry Lacey by Policemen Goss and Carlson on suspicion of having been implicated in the robbery of the house of Dr. Bryant, No. 518 Seventh street northwest. Simms was locked up at the First precinct station, where Lacey now has three other suspected housebreakers. All will be given a hearing in the police court this week.

One of the rumored engagements of last winter has been revived this fall—that of Guaranteed Satisfaction.

You have us to fall back on if anything doesn't wear as we recommend it.

If a garment doesn't turn out as it should, kindly let us know about it—we'll right the matter regardless of what it costs us.

That's modern merchandising—the fair and square kind of dealing that wins new customers and holds old ones.

The brown mixtures and plaids in our $15 suits are $3 more all over the city.

Are they stylish? Why are all the best-dressed men wearing 'em?

$3 hats for $2—it's paying you instead of the newspapers for advertising our new hat department.

Eiseman Bros., Cor. 7th and E Sts. N. W. No Branch Store in Washington.

GOODS TAKEN FROM TOWN

Hudson Bay Fur Cloak Company's Removal of Effects.

Manager Wolf Insists That It Was Necessary, but Creditors Will Not Be Cheated.

The fact that Mr. Martin Wolf, manager of the Hudson Bay Fur Company, had removed goods from the office of the company on Wednesday night was stated exclusively yesterday in the Morning Times.

It was also reported that Mr. Wolf had left the city surreptitiously on Wednesday night, and that many people in Washington who had goods on store in the establishment, or there to be renovated, had lost them by reason of the movement.

Inquiry as to these statements was made yesterday at the place of business of the company, 516 Eleventh street northwest. There were two ladies in charge when The Times called.

They said that Mr. Wolf had not left the city on Wednesday night, as one of the afternoon papers had stated, but that he left here yesterday at noon for Philadelphia, where is the main office of the company. They were asked if it was true that goods had been removed to Philadelphia.

They said that it was true that goods of the company had been ordered to the Philadelphia establishment, which goods were the property of the company. They further said that all persons who had goods stored in the premises could have them if they desired, but that those who had goods there which were being repaired under contract could not have them until the contracts had been fulfilled mutually.

They were asked if any of the Washington people had called to get their goods yesterday, to which they replied that they had and showed receipts of several persons who had called and received their articles. One of the ladies who were represented in the afternoon paper as failing to get her goods had them in the morning.

The ladies said that they had no doubt that the store would be reopened in a few days; that the rent was paid promptly as usual yesterday, and that a deposit had been made in Riggs' bank.

The following note was received by The Times from Mr. Wolf yesterday:

Editor Times: Responding to an announcement in your paper, I wish to say that owing to a certain change in the firm, we have to close for a few days. I further wish to state that all goods left in our charge will be perfectly safe and all orders attended to as before.

Customers wishing to withdraw their orders can do so by writing to us, and we will return them immediately. Any garment left on storage can be had at our store on presentation of their receipt. I wish further to say that people who have been dealing with me should know that they are perfectly safe.

Manager of the Hudson Bay Fur and Cloak Company.

SUFFERING FROM FEVER.

William DeLoe Has Been Taken from His Parents' Home to the Hospital.

William D. DeLoe, the young Washington boy so mysteriously disappeared from DuBois Park, where he was employed as a reporter on a local paper, and who turned up at his parents' home in this city after an absence of twelve days, is suffering from a severe attack of typhoid fever, and on the advice of Dr. Riggs, the family physician, has been transferred to the Homeopathic Hospital.

He has not yet recovered from his delirium sufficiently to give an intelligent account of his wanderings during the twelve days he was on the road.

Injured While Playing. Henry Dobson, a fifteen-year-old pupil at the Eastern High School, ran against a fellow pupil while playing during the noon recess yesterday and knocked him down. The fall was so violent that the young fellow was stunned, and unconscious when picked up. He was taken to his home, No. 100 Eleventh street southeast, in the Fifth precinct patrol wagon, and was getting along all right last night.

Powell Kept the Cash. William H. Powell, colored, was arrested last night for the larceny of a safety bicycle. Powell was given a bicycle by Horace Anderson, of No. 1385 R street northwest, to sell for him the wheel, but, it is alleged, kept the money.

OUR SECOND GRAND MILLinery OPENING

WILL OCCUR Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Oct. 17th, Oct. 18th, Oct. 19th.

Store will be kept open Thursday and Friday evenings until 9 p. m., Saturday evening until 11 p. m.

We shall place on display the greatest variety and finest assortment of Millinery in Washington.

The unprecedented increase in our Millinery business proves that it is meeting with public approval. If you haven't been here lately, you're no idea of the magnificent improvement.

To help well-thought-out during our opening we will offer a special lot of cloth Rob Roy Caps, with leather, colors navy blue, cardinal and brown. This special attraction will be 25c for the regular 50c kinds.

Also, for this occasion, we will offer without profit a special lot of stylish trimmed hats. They are tastefully trimmed with huckle, chenille braid and jettes, and are just the thing for this season of the year. We offer them at $1.98; other times the price will be $2.98. You will find every hat a true money saver. All hats trimmed free.

Those that study economy will take advantage now and attend this Grand Opening. All are invited.

Police and attentive salesladies await you.

Blum Bros., 743-745-747 Eighth St. S. E.

PITEOUS PLEA FOR LIBERTY

Louisa A. Dougherty Escaped from the Iusane Asylum Carriage.

Gave a Hysterical Letter for Judge Bradley, Who Will Investigate. Was Recaptured.

While the call-roll from St. Elizabeth's asylum, loaded with patients for their daily airing, was passing near the corner of Seventh and I streets northwest about noon yesterday, Louisa A. Dougherty, one of the occupants, sprang from the vehicle and rushed into an adjacent Seventh street store. One of the attendants immediately started in pursuit, and as he caught her in the store a large crowd gathered outside, attracted by her screams.

She emphatically refused to re-enter the wagon, and pleaded with the attendant to give her liberty, declaring hysterically that she was perfectly sane, and unjustly incarcerated in the institution.

She resisted the efforts of the nurse, and nothing could be done with her until a special officer arrived on the scene, and displaying his badge and promising her protection succeeded in quieting her.

She made an excited statement to the crowd, saying that her mind was sound, and that she was wrongfully detained at the asylum. She finally thrust a letter into the hands of Mr. J. Morris, and begged him to deliver it. He promised to do so, and she appeared satisfied.

The letter was addressed to Judge Bradley, but the contents were addressed to George A. Dougherty, a brother, and begged him to call upon her. It also contained some charges against the management of the asylum, and asked her brother to take some steps to secure her release.

The letter was delivered to Judge Bradley, and he stated that he would make a personal inquiry into the case.

Later in the day Dougherty, who gave the name of Dougherty, called at the office of The Times and requested that no publicity be given the affair. They stated that their sister, who is a married woman, is undoubtedly insane, although she continually insists that she is not.

The asylum authorities insist that in all cases no sane person is incarcerated.

ANALYSIS NOT COMPLETED. Contents of John Sanford's Stomach Still Unknown to the Chemist.

The analysis of the contents of the stomach of John Sanford, the Government Printing Office watchman, whose body was exhumed Tuesday afternoon at the request of relatives of the deceased, has not yet been completed, and Dr. Hammett says that it may be a couple of days before Prof. De Witt, chief of the Agricultural Department, can finish his investigation.

Mrs. Rose Sanford, alleged to be the first and legal wife of the deceased, has been requested to come from New York as soon as possible, and is expected to arrive to-day.

Colored National Convention. The colored national convention completed its work at 4:30 p. m. yesterday when Chairman James W. Poe declared it adjourned to meet at Richmond, Va., Tuesday, July 2, 1896. It adopted a long platform, denouncing the administration of President Cleveland for the crime of lynching, reaffirming its allegiance to the Republican party, favoring freedom for Cuba, declared in favor of the use of both gold and silver as money, eulogized Morton, Reed, Harrison, Allison, Sherman, and practically endorsed the candidacy of McKinley.

McKendree Epworth League. The members of McKendree Chapter, Epworth League, will meet in the lecture room of the church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Delegates will be elected to the annual convention of the Washington District Epworth League, which meets at Metropolitan M. E. Church, November 8, 9 and 10. Reports will be made by delegates appointed on inter-league visitation. The officers will present reports and plans for the winter's work.

Map Printer Wanted. The Civil Service Commission will hold an examination on October 31 to fill a vacancy in the position of map printer. United States Geological Survey, at a salary of $3.40 per day. The subjects of the examination will be orthography, penmanship, copying, arithmetic, and practical questions in lithography. Only males will be admitted to the examination.

Powell Kept the Cash. William H. Powell, colored, was arrested last night for the larceny of a safety bicycle. Powell was given a bicycle by Horace Anderson, of No. 1385 R street northwest, to sell for him the wheel, but, it is alleged, kept the money.

YOU CAN'T AFFORD NOT TO SEE OUR $2.40 HAT. Henry Franc & Son, Cor. 7 and D.

GRASPED COMRADE'S HANDS

Gen. Miles Tendered a Reception by the Army and Navy Club.

Loyal Legion Were Invited Guests as Also High Government Officials. A Brilliant Scene.

The Army and Navy Club was the scene of a brilliant gathering of the local and visiting military last evening, the occasion being a reception tendered by that organization to the new major general, Nelson A. Miles, who succeeds Lieut. Gen. Schofield. The club took this means of testifying to the gallant soldier who is one of the most popular officers in the army, the respect which he holds by his former comrades in war and the later generation of peace.

It was strictly an affair for the military. The invited guests were the justices of the supreme court, the heads of the departments of the government, and the war and navy attaches of the various legations and the sixty members of the visiting Loyal Legion. Only such members of the local Loyal Legion were present as are members of the club.

All of the rooms of the club were brilliantly illuminated, but there were no decorations, not even in the shape of the national flag.

Gen. Miles came in about 9 o'clock. He is a hale and hearty soldier and was attired in full dress uniform, that being the dress of all who attended, except the civilians.

There were no formalities. Gen. Miles stood at the entrance of the upper parlor and received the callers, having a word for each of them, and occasionally more than a word for his more intimate friends and especially those with whom he had seen service. The Marine band furnished the music.

Among the more distinguished guests were Secretary of War Landon, Assistant Secretary of War Dole, Secretary Herbert, of the Navy, and Assistant Secretary McKee, Justice Fields, Brewer and Harlan, Chief Engineer Melville, of the navy, J. McElwain, president of the board of examiners for the navy, Gen. Hyatt, of San Francisco, Col. Dodge, of St. Louis, Col. Hosmer, Col. Brady, Adjutant General Higgins, Gen. Elliott, Gen. Breckinridge, Col. Closson, and many others.

The hours were passed away until about half past ten o'clock in the interchange of sentiment and the telling of the old story and his many brilliant events on field and sea.

The last feature of the programme was a supper, which was done full justice by the veterans and the junior heroes of the army and navy. There were no speeches. The affair was simply gotten up in honor of the new commander and in other respects the incidents were informal.

IMPERIAL OFFICERS ELECTED.

Session of Grand Body of Colored Mystic Shrine.

The imperial grand council of the (colored) Mystic Shrine of North and South America, yesterday began a two days' session here.

The following named grand officers were elected: John G. Jones, 33, of Chicago, Ill., most imperial grand potentate; James H. Lewis, 32, of New York, imperial deputy grand potentate; Robert J. Edwards, 32, of Sacramento, Cal., imperial grand chief rabbi; Robert H. Heales, 33, of New York, imperial grand assistant chief rabbi; William R. Morris, 33, of Minneapolis, Minn., imperial grand high priest and prophet; W. W. Madden, 32, of Baltimore, Md., imperial grand orator; George W. T. Flood, 33, of Indianapolis, Ind., imperial grand treasurer; D. F. Seville, 32, of Washington, D. C., imperial grand corresponding recorder; Thomas W. Logan, 33, of Kansas City, Mo., imperial grand recorder; R. M. Shook, K. T., of Cleveland, O., imperial grand orator; Spencer H. Gilmore, K. T., of Providence, R. I., imperial grand prelate; E. P. Clark, 32, of San Francisco, Cal., imperial grand first ceremonial master; M. L. Hunter, 33, of New York, second ceremonial master; Joseph H. 33, of Oghthorn, Ont., imperial grand marshal; E. A. Williams, 33, of New Orleans, La., imperial grand architect; S. S. Scott, 33, of Pueblo, Col., imperial grand organist; Thomas P. Mahanoma, 33, of Omaha, Neb., imperial grand standard bearer; W. J. Douglas, 32, of Princeton, N. J., imperial grand lecturer; Arthur Thompson, K. T., of Baltimore, Md., imperial grand captain of guard; J. D. Scott, 32, of Fort Worth, Tex., imperial grand assistant guard; John Coleman, 32, of Waterbury, Conn., imperial grand outside guard; W. L. Kline, 33, of Dallas, Tex., chairman of board of trustees.

Hurdle Harled Rocks. Joseph Hurdle, sixteen years of age, hurled large stones on Twentieth street last evening, and was promptly locked up by Policeman Jack, for throwing missiles.

ARRIVAL OF THE WALLERS

Ex-Consul's Wife and Children Again in America.

HER STORY OF THEIR WRONGS

Insists That Her Husband Was Denied a Fair Trial and Declares That Consul Wetter Was in Collusion with the French—Grossly Insulted by French Soldiers on Their Voyage.

New York, Oct. 17.—Mrs. John L. Waller, wife of the former United States consul to Madagascar, arrived in this city this morning on the Dutch steamer Amsterdam.

She was accompanied by her three daughters and her young son. She was met at the pier in Hoboken by her adviser, E. G. Woodford, and crossed the river on a tug, after which she went at once to the Clarendon Hotel.

When seen there by a reporter she said that she could add but little to the reports already made public of her husband's confinement in the prison at Madagascar.

"There is one thing I would like to say, however," said Mrs. Waller. "Ambassador Dutra has been harshly criticized for not aiding us as much as he might have done. There is no truth in that report."

"Mr. Dutra did everything in his power for us. He is even now treating my husband with the utmost consideration. The whole trouble lay with Robert Campbell, my husband's predecessor."

CHARGE AGAINST HIM. "Mr. Waller was arrested," she continued, "at Tananarive, Madagascar, March 8, 1895, by the French authorities on a charge of having conducted a clandestine correspondence with the enemy, the Hovas."

It appears, according to Mrs. Waller's story, that on September 5, while at the house of a Hova acquaintance, Mr. Waller had promised to procure four or five new valises for the son of his guest, who, as Mr. Waller was preparing to take a trip to this country, had requested him to purchase the valises for him.

At the trial of Waller these valises played an unfortunate part for him, as the French authorities insisted that they were simply samples of an intended shipment of arms to the Hovas. After his arrest Mr. Waller was confined in a Chinaman's shop at Tananarive, and on March 18 he was tried by court martial.

There were two counts to his indictment—violating "Order 3," in sending letters from Tananarive, which was in a state of siege, without their having been scrutinized by the authorities, and attempting to convey information to the enemy.

Capt. Lavie and six lieutenants composed the court. Waller had repeatedly asked for counsel, but was allowed none until twenty-four hours before the trial, when L. Jervaud took his case; but as soon as he had read the letters Waller had written to Mrs. Waller the lawyer threw up the case.

The reason for this, Mrs. Waller says, was that in one of them Waller had written in condemnatory terms of certain acts of Consul Wetter, his successor.

CALLED THEM SPIES. In his letter to his wife Waller had told of outrages and thefts committed by the French, and had referred to two persons by the letters "D" and "P," whom he declared to be French spies.

Waller had also sent letters to George Tessier and a young Hova named Ratsimandry, both of whom contained nothing but references to business matters.

Previous to the trial Waller was examined through a French interpreter, and made to sign a paper written in French, a language he did not understand. The court martial appointed a clerk named Gerard as counsel for the defense, but he was allowed to make practically no defense.

The trial and drawing up of the sentence occupied three hours and twenty-five minutes. Waller was condemned to twenty years in prison, and an appeal to a higher court was denied him. He was taken to the prison at Clarendon, in the south of France, March 24 last.

Mrs. Waller says that if Mr. Waller had not been detained at Tananarive by Consul Wetter, who was repeatedly questioned some of her husband's official acts, Waller would not have been arrested. In fact, she said, public opinion at Tananarive was to the effect that Consul Wetter was in collusion with the French authorities.

PRAYED FORLY EXPELLED. After Waller's conviction an order expelling his stepson, Robert Bray, to Zanzibar was carried out, he being forcibly taken to that place on the same steamer which conveyed Waller to prison. An American named Woodford took Mrs. Waller and her children as far as Mauritius, where she asked assistance of Consul Campbell to enable her to reach the United States.

The consul told her, she says, that the United States made no such provision for such purposes. Then she went to the governor, who said he would help her if Consul Campbell would write to him regarding the matter. This the consul refused to do, saying that it would humiliate him.

Finally, she was sent home, third-class passage, and while on the steamer she and her children were grossly insulted by the French soldiers. From Marseilles, where she and her children were treated with the greatest kindness by Consul Chaut Thomas, of whom she speaks in the highest terms, Mrs. Waller came to the United States in the second cabin.

They will probably leave for Washington to-night.

Boys Jumping on Cars. Policeman McMahon, of the Eighth precinct, forced up Walter Banks, twelve years of age, for jumping on and off Ninth street electric cars, while in motion. The boys chase the rapidly moving cars along Ninth street, between T and V streets, and the residents declare it is a wonder there are not many more accidents.

Arrested for Using Firearms. Dorsey Vanita, colored, was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Elizabeth Clon, charging him with having fired a gun on the public streets. The arrest was made by Policeman Topscott, last night.

OUR FALL STOCK

Embraces the latest novelties—modish garments for men of all sizes. Workmanship, style, and its guarantee.

Wholesale and Retail Manufacturing Clothiers, 405 7th Street N. W.

Factory and salesroom 402 and 404 Penn St., Reading, Pa.

To-day's Prices. Arnsworth's extra Sifted Peas, 10c per can; $1.10 per doz. Agricultural Brand Tomatoes, 7c per can; 75c per doz. Selecting Maine Corn, 10c per can; $1.10 per doz. Potomac Corn, 7c per can; 75c per doz. Pride of the Valley Corn, 5c per can; 50c per doz.

J. T. D. Pyles, STONES—412 4th St. N. E.; Cor. 3d and Md. Ave. N. E.; 1815 10th St. N. E.; Cor. Washington and Moore Sts. Anacostia. Telephone, White Call.

How Much PLEASED

You feel when your Suit or Overcoat pleases you in every particular.

No matter what price you care to pay, we give you just such garments.

"A well pleased customer."

That's the object we always have in view in dealing with you.

Suits to order from - $20.00

Overcoats to order from $18.00

Nicoll.

615 and 617 Penn. Ave.

It Is Money Saved

To send your curtains to a good laundry instead of attempting to clean them yourself. We have special facilities for fine laundry work, and any one who has tried us can tell you we only do the best work.